DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

1. Claims 1, 5, 9-10, 13, 18, 22-23, 26, 29, 32-33, 36-37, 41, 45-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Jayaraman-6,162,245.

As to claims 1, 5, 9-10, 13, 18, 22-23, 26, 29, 32-33, 36-37, 41 and 45-46, Jayaraman-'245 discloses substantially the claimed invention including cells consisting of 1 loop AED and three loops AB, BC, CD, wherein strut AED is wider than struts AB, BC, CD and strut BC is shorter than struts AB and CD as shown in the reproduced Fig. 30 of Jayaraman-'245 below:

Fig. 30

2. Claims 49, 53-56, 61-62 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brown et al-7,204,848.

As to claims 49, 55-56, 58, Brown-'848 discloses substantially the claimed invention including cells including 1st member AB, 2nd member BC, 3rd member CD, 4th member DE, 5th member EF, 6th member FG, 7th member GH and 8th member HA, substantially as recited in the claims as shown in the reproduced Fig. 30 of Jayaraman-'245 below:

As to claims 53 and 54, notice that in a collapsed configuration all members of each cell of the stent are substantially parallel.

As to claims 61-62, 1st and 2nd members AB and BC are wider than struts 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th members and 5th member EF is shorter than 3rd member CD.

3. Claims 7, 14, 20, 31, 38, 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Jayaraman-6,162,245.

As to claims 7, 20, 31, 43, Jayaraman-6,162,245 discloses substantially the claimed invention, except for explicitly discloses that the crimped stent has in uniformly same diameter. It is clear that, as one desires, Jayaraman-6,162,245 stent is capable of being crimped to a uniformly same diameter as recited in the claims. Alternatively, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a crimped stent having uniformly same diameter or nesting of struts for a generally lower profile of the stent for easy deployment of the stent in a tortuous vessel.

As claims 14 and 38, in a crimped configuration, all loops and bands of the stent are substantially in phase one to another.

4. Claim 59 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Brown et al-7,204,848.

As to claim 59, Brown et al-7,204,848 discloses substantially the claimed invention, except for explicitly discloses that the crimped stent has in uniformly same diameter. It is clear that, as one desires, Brown et al-7,204,848 stent is capable of being crimped to a uniformly same diameter as recited in the claims. Alternatively, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a crimped stent having uniformly same diameter or nesting of struts for a generally lower profile of the stent for easy deployment of the stent in a tortuous vessel.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 50-51 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brown et al-7,204,848.

As to claims 50-51, Brown et al-7,204,848 discloses substantially the claimed invention, except for the differences in length of the members as recited in the claims. However, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to , since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the size of a component. A change in size or length is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In re Rose, 105 USPQ 237 (CCPA 1955).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
